a. Safety and security

A full-time Warden and supporting staff are hired to maintain safety and security at the girls' hostel. To stop outsiders from entering the college campus, ID cards are given to the employees and students. In order to verify their identity in the case of an emergency visit, the parents and guardians are handed visitor cards. The guards at the entryway maintain visitor entry and exit. Additionally, CCTV cameras are set up in key spots across the campus, offering 24-hour surveillance to keep an eye on activity going. For the purpose of gathering suggestions or complaints students on the campus regarding any abuse or harassment, a complaint box has been set up near the college office. The Institute maintains a number of committees including the Sexual Harassment Committee, Grievance Redressal Committee, and Anti-Ragging Committee that keep an eye on and address safety, security, and social issues. Hostels and other areas of the institute have fire extinguishers installed. There is fencing surrounding the institute.

b. Counseling

Through mentor-mentee sessions that are frequently supervised by the mentors assigned to students, the institute offers academic, stress-related personal counselling, and advice to students (mentees). The Institute has also formed a separate counselling committee to discuss issues beyond mentor-mentee meetings and an Admissions committee to counsel the students at the time of admission. The mentor interacts with and supports the assigned mentees in resolving all of their academic, personal, and stress-related problems and issues. Professional counsellors provide personal counselling to faculty members and students.

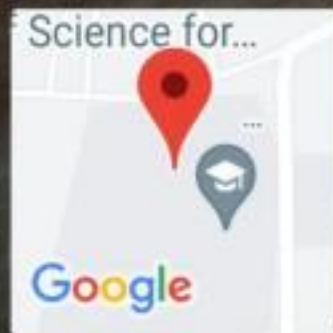

c. Common Rooms

- The institute has its own common room at the hostel. The hostel committee maintains the television, magazines, and other amenities in the common area, along with other essential items.
